HAY MAKING IS GENERAL ORDER IN THE COUNTY

AGRICULTURAL ADVISER MADE THIRTY-SEVEN VISITS DURING PAST WEEK—A NUMBER HAVE ALREADY SOWN THEIR OATS.

I made thirty-seven visits to farmers and truckers this week, and found that haymaking was the general order of things. Some have got their crops all secured and are now busy plowing land for the oat crop. Quite a number have already sown their oats, and I saw some up and a good stand with a promise of a good start of the crop before cold weather sets in. Quite an acreage is going to be planted to cabbage and the acreage for Irish potatoes for spring planting promises to be the largest on record, as our farmers are beginning to find out that this is a very profitable crop when the soil is properly prepared, the right kind of seed used, and the fertilizer properly compounded and applied in the right way.

The gathering of the corn crop has been detracted to a certain extent this week, so as to secure the hay crop. I found quite a number, however, gathering their corn and report satisfactory yields. The velvet bean crop is a large one this year, and where the proper methods were used in the production, is turning out more profitably than the corn crop.

The sugar cane crop promises well and in a few more weeks cane grinding will be in full swing. There will be more syrup produced this year in the county than usual, and with the improved methods adopted by most farmers, the quality is bound to be of the best; prices are better also, so that upon the whole, those growing sugar cane are very optimistic of the results. This crop and the sweet potato crop are going to replace cotton

MARKET DAY IS MOST LARGELY ATTENDED YET

NINETEEN WAGONS WERE AT THE CURB AND MANY OF THEM SOLD OUT EARLY AND RETURNED HOME.

Yesterday was the most largely attended market day on record, there being nineteen wagons at the curb, and many of them had sold out and left by 8 o'clock.

Among the farmers in attendance were the following:

Tony San Angelo had peas, radishes, turnip greens, celery, onions, okra, sweet potatoes, sweet peppers, collards, Irish potatoes.

J. T. Mead had sweet potatoes, turnip greens, French peas, eggs.

Mr. Vickery had chickens.

O. W. Jefferson had ducks, chickens, three kinds jelly, persimmons, eggs, butter, milk, buttermilk, cream, syrup, cream cheese.

J. W. Tucker had sugar cane and chickens.

S. W. Hlatt had turnip greens, chickens, sugar cane.

Geo. Wilson had eggplants, sugar cane, peppers, osts, eggs.

C. A. Arnett had chickens and sweet potatoes.

J. Shuler had carrots, collards, okra, lettuce and peppers.

Joe Mathis had mustard greens, sweet potatoes, eggs.

Sam Menasco had snap beans, sweet peppers, eggplants, tomatoes.

Sol Mathews had sweet potatoes, okra, collard greens, turnip greens, corn.

J. T. Hall had sweet potatoes, okra, sweet peppers.

B. C. Renfro had oranges, eggs, turnip greens, new syrup, cashew.

T. F. Wincer had turnip greens, collards, sweet potatoes, chickens.

Mike Shuler had chickens, hot peppers, greens, sweet potatoes, cabbage, eggs, onions, Irish potatoes.

L. K. Jefferson had turnip greens, radishes, sweet potatoes, eggs, guinea.

Geo. Leaman had chickens and collards.

Leo Voonthees had chickens.

to a large extent; they are both cash crops and more profitable than cotton.

This week begins the Interstate Fair, and we hope to meet all Escambia county farmers there some day of the time it lasts. We will have a tent, where the headquarters of the Escambia County Crop Improvement Association will be located; everyone is welcome to come and make it their resting place while visiting the fair, set acquainted with each other and incidentally, discuss agricultural problems. Should the attendance at any one time warrant it, lectures will be delivered on different subjects. Owing to absence from the county for a day or so in the beginning of the week, and the fair being in progress, will not make any farm visits for the next two weeks, but expect to meet more farmers in our tent than I would if I went to visiting them at their homes.

C. K. McQUARRIE, Agricultural Adviser Escambia County Crop Imp. Assn. and U. S. Demonstration Agent.

YOUNG BONIFAY MAN

VERY MUCH MARRIED

The Panama City Pilot contains the following: George W. Wright, a young white man, is a much married individual, according to an affidavit made last week by L. P. Taylor; also George is in jail, where he waits away the weary hours by plunking his old banjo.

According to Mr. Taylor's affidavit, Wright married his daughter, Allie Viola Taylor, March 18, 1913, while he had a wife, one Carrie Wright, to whom he was married June 1 1909.

Deputy Sheriff Tedford located Wright at Bonifay, and arrested him Saturday. He was brought here and placed in jail, and has spent the time since playing his banjo and singing to the delectation or disgust of those in the vicinity.

PEDDLER DIED

FROM POISONING

The Panama City Pilot says: Lafayette Suggs, a syrup peddler from Clarksville, Fla., was found on the road last Wednesday, between Millville and Moore Town, by John Vickery, in a precarious condition. He was brought in his wagon to Millville and Dr. Nixon was called to attend him.

Upon examination he was found to have a severe case of ptomaine poisoning. Later Mr. Suggs was removed to Mr. Wilson's at the Bavis house, where everything was done for him that medical skill could concede. He lingered in great pain till 3 o'clock Thursday morning, when death relieved him of his suffering. At his own request his body was sent to his home near
